Four of them he filled out to the amount of $298, and obtained the money from Walsh, the banker of & Walls reet. Another he made out for $120 and obtained a diamond ring from Mather & Wentworth, of 22 Maideu Lane. He said he was a son of John Foley, the gold pen man.

At the store of Charles W. Schumann, 24 John street, he selected a $125 gold watch. He told Mr. Schuman that he was the son of J. H. Meeker, and he would see his father about the watch. Soon after he ran into the store without coat or hat and said his father wanted him to buy the watch and gave him a check on the mercantile National Bank for the $125. He got the watch and the check was discovered to be worthless.

Levy was arrested by Detective Charles O'Connor, of the Central Office. He had nothing to say and Justice Power committed him.

A Pauper, Yet Cares Not for Wealth.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 -It was expected that there would be some action taken in the Probate Con t his morning in the matter of the estate of Patrica H. Gaffney, but no application was made by any of the alleged beirs for letters. A lawyer named the sileges heirs for leiters. A lawyer named George R. Daley entered the appearance of Join Gaffney, the brother, and T. V. Sherican, the aleged nephew. He left no will, but his heirs are entitled to an estate worth $190,000. There are peculiar features in the case, one of which is that the harine Gaffney, a seventy-five-year-old size of the howing the poornouse of New York City, has stated that she does not circ to have her share of the property, about $40,000. Another singular circumstance is that John Gaffney denies that Sherican, a self-asserted nephew, is an heir of the deceased.
